FROM B's BAR

From BM Bar Manager Brian MacAulay

Hurricane Juan

The Hurricane Cocktail is a traditional rum punch served out of New Orleans. In tribute to Hurricane Juan that made landfall in Nova Scotia early on September 29, 2003, I've created my own version of the cocktail.

1 oz Goslings Black Seal Rum
½ oz Tequila
5 oz pineapple juice
dash grenadine

Pour over ice in a tall cocktail glass and garnish with a lime slice and cherry. Be careful – however smooth this cocktail may be, it still packs a good punch!

Cheers!

From Executive Chef Rodney Cole

SOUR CREAM, BLACK PEPPER & SCALLION DRESSING

- ½ cup sour cream
- ½ cup mayonnaise
- 2 stalks green onion, thinly sliced
- 3 Tablepoons red wine vinegar

Cracked pepper to taste
Pinch of salt

How to do it:

1. Mix all ingredients together in mixing bowl.

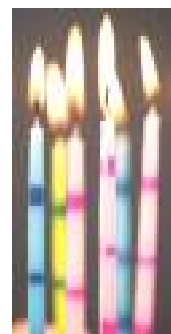

Great with your baby spinach salad!

SUMMER PUB FEATURE

The Lower Deck is hitting the flats this summer to bring you fresh Nova Scotia clams. Currently featured in the Pub, our clams are lightly coated and then deep fried to a golden brown. We're serving them with our house made tartar sauce and fries, but for a small surcharge you can have sweet potato fries or salad instead! Yummy . . .

BIRTHDAY FUN!

You've waited for it all summer and it's finally coming in September! The Lower Deck's 35th birthday isn't a big surprise, but the party is. Keep an eye on our website for the date and details of this milestone event! See you here!
